

DHS Graduation 2024 Cap & Gown Application

1. For grade 12 students to be eligible to participate in our Cap & Gown Ceremony they must:
 - a. Be registered in sufficient credits to achieve an Alberta High School Diploma or Certificate of High School Completion.
 - b. Have passed their necessary courses from semester 1 AND have a passing mark or better in all courses required for an Alberta High School Diploma or Certificate of High School Completion on April 15th (or the first school day after April 15th). Students who have paid or accounted for all school fees at Didsbury High School by May 17th (or the first school day after May 17th).
2. Students and parents/guardians who are not in a position to graduate by April 15th will be contacted by administration. A plan may be created to allow the student to participate in Cap & Gown.
3. The Cap and Gown Ceremony will be held on Friday, May 24th, 2024.
4. Students are required to wear appropriate attire for Cap & Gown, which would range from semi-formal to formal clothing and footwear.
5. There will be a $30 fee to take part in Cap and Gown. This fee will be included as part of your school fees and can be paid on-line, by cheque or by credit/debit in the school office.

I understand the requirements to take part in the Cap and Gown Ceremony.
